

Speaking Fees and Booking Jon

Jon is open to fitting into any church's budget and schedule. To inquire about booking him, email him at jong@harvestprayer.com.

Fees and Requirements

Because he wants to be available for any sized church, Jon only requires that all expenses be paid (travel, hotel, and meals), an honorarium of the church's choosing be given, and that he be allowed to sell books at his conferences. Most churches average an honorarium of $1,000 to $1,200 per weekend or engagement. If that amount cannot be provided, Jon is still very open and willing to come to your church.

Consulting fees are based upon the amount of services a church needs.

Booking Dates

Jon usually is booked about 6 - 9 months ahead. You are encouraged to book early to get the best dates for your church. If you would like to book something sooner, to check his current schedule (usually shows about four to five months out) click here.

Travel

Jon is located in Terre Haute, IN. He flies out of Indianapolis. He generally asks that he fly to any church of more than a 5/12 hour drive from his home.

Also included in the travel expenses are mileage to and from the Indianapolis airport (130 miles), and parking fees. Generally for a weekend conference this adds $100 to the expenses.

Jon also asks that he be put up in a hotel with free high speed internet.
