

Anne Graham Lotz Issues Urgent Call to Repentance

Evangelist Anne Graham Lotz is issuing an urgent call to repentance, warning that America has a “small window of opportunity” to return to God, which, if not taken, will incite severe judgment. The founder and president of AnGeL Ministries says the United States has repeatedly “shaken its fist” in God’s face, removing His name everywhere, from schools to the government.

“If we’re not careful, we’re going to totally lose our way,” she stresses. “America will become unrecognizable. The world is a very dangerous place right now. We desperately need God.”

Lotz participated in The Return led by Jonathan Cahn and a prayer march led by her brother Franklin Graham on September 26 in Washington, D.C., to pray for the U.S. and its citizens.

She admits that Cahn asked her to participate in events for years, “but I always declined,” she says. “I just didn’t feel like revival would come until we were desperate for it.”

As a child, Lotz recalls asking her mother, Ruth Graham, “With all of father’s meetings and events that have taken place, why haven’t we had a revival?”

“My mother said, ‘It’s because we’re not desperate enough,’” Lotz recalls. “So I always felt like something needed to trigger it.” But Jonathan Cahn kept telling her that the Lord had strongly impressed upon him the need for a call to revival in September of 2020. “Based on his strong conviction and my belief that we need to return to the Lord,” Lotz says, “I agreed [back in January] to participate in The Return.” Then COVID-19 broke out, the economic recession hit, and anarchy swept the streets.

“It’s more than unrest,” she says. “It feels like we’re being attacked invisibly. My prayer is that this is the trigger. If this doesn’t make us desperate for revival, if this doesn’t make us return to the Lord and beg for His mercy, then I’m not sure anything will. We’re in a freefall.”

Lotz sounds a warning: “We’ve left our foundation of faith in the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,” she says. “Until we come back to the Lord through repentance and prayer, then I don’t think there’s any hope for America.”

–Adapted from The Christian Post.