

Decision America Tour Concludes in NC

Rev. Franklin Graham concluded his 50-state Decision America Tour prayer rally on October 13 in his home state of North Carolina. For several months leading up to the presidential election in November, Graham and his team toured the country, stopping at each state capital, urging Christians to pray for America and to get out and vote. During each rally, Graham invited attendees to pray in groups for the nation, for the local government workers, for law enforcement, and for a revival in peoples' hearts.

In Raleigh, NC, more than 14,000 people gathered at the final rally. There were an additional 150,000 live views online, and more than 287,000 people watched via Facebook Live. A total of 236,950—an average of nearly 5,000 people per stop—turned out for the 50 state rallies (decisionamericatour.com).
